to colorful basics from Sunray Sportswear, inspired by Hawaii and made in Japan

Sunray

SPORTSWEAR

Sunray is produced in Japan by a small, family-owned company who have been making clothes for nearly 100 years in a quest for excellence and perfection. Production on vintage circular knitting machines using traditional and time-honored methods make Sunray's garments unique, luxurious, and durable. As Sunray puts it, "There are no shortcuts to any place worth going."
